

WASSP installation on Sussex Inshore Fisheries and Conservation Authority patrol vessel "Watchful"

Sussex Inshore Fisheries and Conservation Authority patrol vessel Watchful has recently had a WASSP system installed by oceanDTM. The vessel is capable of collecting good quality data up to a speed of 14 knots.

The "pod" for the WASSP transducer is compact and welded to the keel for a very secure and safe mount

